LET'S MAKE CITIES
WE CAN BREATHE IN

“Our cities’ air could be clean, our streets free of traffic, our everyday journeys healthy and safe. We could have streets we enjoy spending time in.”
Caroline Russell, Green Party Transport spokesperson

The Green Party will end illegal air pollution and champion a plan to bring clean air to your community.

Air pollution is harming our health. Thousands of us are breathing in toxic air every day through no choice of our own.

76 local authorities in the UK are forecast to breach legal air pollution limits until at least the end of 2018. This is despite Government having been taken to court 3 times because their clean air strategy is so weak it's illegal.

Some Councils have a clean air plan, but they undo its benefits by building new roads, developing car-dependent shopping centres, and failing to enforce air pollution standards.

We must end illegal air pollution and make streets places we enjoy spending time in.

WHAT WILL THE GREEN PARTY DO?

Meet legal air pollution limits within a year.

Make walking, cycling, and public transport the main forms of urban transport.

Make public transport cleaner, more affordable, more accessible, and more joined up.

Introduce a new Clean Air Act that establishes clean air as a human right.
